

FCAA Summit Sponsorship Opportunities

Funders Concerned About AIDS (FCAA) will convene its 2019 AIDS Philanthropy Summit on October 28-29, 2019 in Washington, DC. The FCAA Summit is the premier national conference for grantmakers interested in HIV/AIDS and social justice-related philanthropy, and it attracts around 200 foundation leaders and experts in the field annually.

FCAA members now have the opportunity to sponsor different parts of the Summit that align with, or highlight, their grantmaking interests and impact. We also encourage sponsors to consider waiving one or more of their associated free registrations towards our new Community Representation Scholarship. This new scholarship fund will help ensure diverse representation of community-based thought leaders at FCAA events by providing direct resources to cover their travel costs. Importantly, this fund will also allow FCAA to provide honorariums to our community-based speakers as a best practice to more appropriately compensate them for their time and expertise.
